Where Comfort Meets Designer Fashion!

We are often asked which designer makes the most comfortable bridal shoes. Without a doubt Angela Nuran's professional quality dance shoes are the best out there. Incredible padding and suede soles provide hours of comfort. An interchangeable brooch allows for the shoes to be customized, matching the bride's style. For a perfect fit, the width adjusts to fit narrow, medium, or wide feet. The outer Italian silk can be custom dyed any color, so the sky is the limit. Often brides return after their wedding raving about the shoes, having us dye them black for future use.

Create a Wedding Timeline that is Customized to You

Having deadlines for certain milestones will keep you organized and allow you to embrace the (sometimes daunting!) planning process. Leading up to the big day, every detail will have been well thought out, keeping your reception stress free and full of dancing.

Multi-Cultural Wedding Planning Stress — Not Allowed!

Incorporating the perfect balance of traditions in a multi-cultural or multi-faith wedding can be harder than you might think, but an experienced planner can help you blend the best of both worlds seamlessly. Hiring a wedding planner that knows how to highlight and complement both cultures can be the best stress reliever there is!

Timing is Everything!

A strategic event timeline is important! Cut the cake earlier to allow time to cut, plate, and serve immediately after the entrée—when it's most likely to be enjoyed!
