

Let Soraya Take the Stress out of Your Event Planning

The rite of passage that is your child's Bar or Bat Mitzvah should be a joyous time for your entire family. Planning such an event can be stressful, and when you are not sure what vendors to choose or you are too busy to plan yourself, you need to turn to the professionals who can help make this event stress free.

Soraya Y. Belgacem, President and Senior Event Planner of S.Y.B. Event Planning Services, has been planning events for ten years and she loves teen events, especially Bar and Bat Mitzvahs. "I feel Bar and Bat Mitzvahs is an area where creativity is important and that is something I have. I like to challenge myself as a planner to implement the teen and parents' ideas to create a successful event. I always ask myself, "How I can make this different from the last event I planned?"

Parents and families usually have a hard time incorporating their child's loves and passions into their event, and that is something at which S.Y.B. excels. Finding the perfect decorations also poses challenges for most families. Soraya, an event designer, and her decorating partner, Lydia Maldonado, own many custom and themed fabrics which are guaranteed to turn any hall into a work of art!

What differentiates S.Y.B. from other planners? They specialize in themed parties! From Arabian nights, with eclectic belly dancing troops and sword dancers; to Masquerade Themed parties, with stilt walkers and ballerinas adding another element of ambiance; to carnival themed parties, with cotton candy, popcorn and airbrush tattoos; to green screens and grand entrances, S.Y.B. has you covered. They are also the leaders in dessert and candy bars, where they can create custom themed cookies, cake pops and cupcakes to be centered on the parties themes and colors.

S.Y.B. offers industry competitive rates and is happy to work within anyone's budget.

Give this full and partial service event company a try and see how S.Y.B. can bring your child's Bar and Bat Mitzvah to the next level!
